Union Township, Crawford County, Indiana from the Crawford County Public Library

. . . There were but seven legible stones, one more that may be deciphered later. There are perhaps twenty-five graves with rough stones. The lot of the Engleman group had been fenced with woven wire, but now one end is entirely gone. In addition to the three markers, there are three others, one nearly grown and two children.

BELL, SARAH, Dau. of S.W. & E., Nov. 7, 1850 to Nov. 27, 1850.

ENGLEMAN, George A. Born in 1819, Died May 5, 1877.

Member of 1st IN Calvary, Co E.

Note: The date of death looked as if it had been 1877 and then either cut over to be 1889 or 1899. This can be checked from other materials later.

ENGLEMAN, WILSHIRE S. Oct. 14, 1862 to Oct. 12, 1886. (23-11-29)

ENGLEMAN, ELIZABETH, Wife of George A., April 25, 1834 to February 20, 1911.

HICKS, FRANCIS M. Was a member of Co H, 81st Reg. IN Volunteers.

Died Oct. 8, 1872, age 37 years, 5 months, 12 days. There was neither a date of birth or death on the marker.

YATES, EVANGELINE, daughter of J. & E., Jan. 1, 1856 to Oct. 20, 1872.

YATES, ROZELLA, believed to be buried here in a grave south of the Engleman group in an unmarked grave.
